25th EUROPEAN COACH CLINIC December 10-11, 2011 Rotterdam

Dear Sir, dear Madam,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee of the European Coach Clinic I would like to invite your baseball and softball coaches plus instructors for the 25th European Coach Clinic (ECC) in Rotterdam, The Netherlands. This event will take place during the weekend of December 10-11, 2011.

The European Coach Clinic is an inspiring and helpful event for coaches. Here they can learn more about Strategy, Biomechanics, Motor Learning, Strength & Conditioning plus Technical Elements as Hitting, Catching and Pitching. The sessions are conducted by professional coaches from the USA and Australia: Roger LaFrancois, Dave Shuler, Vaughn Robinson and Karen Marr. And coaches from Holland: Craig Montvidas and Brian Farley. Also noteworthy is the attendance of Arnd Rose (Eye Tracking System), Frans Bosch (Sprinting), Martijn Nijhoff (Motor Learning). Each topic can be applied in the development of baseball and softball players. The program offers topics for all attendants, as well as a number of simultaneous in-depth sessions which you can choose from. The diversity suits everyone's interests. Clinic Leader Tom O'Connell will lead all these topics to an intense flow of knowledge.

During the breaks there are enough moments to relax and share you're thoughts with other coaches or with the speakers.

More information on the topics and speakers attending the ECC can be found in the attached flyer and on the website. Registration via www.europeancoachclinic.nl.

Be sure to invite fellow colleagues, the event is open to 120 participants.

We're looking forward to meeting your coaches in Rotterdam at the ECC 2011,

Sincerely Yours,
